Bardichev, that's very simple. When driving on J you are driving upward towards kedushas boropark. On ave L you are driving away, downward from kedushas boropark. Its all about where we are headed in life.

if everyone is going shteeble hopping in brooklyn, then why not in EY?

I am not letting you guys forget about the Holy Land...

anyway, so I was going to the gra not long ago and passed by chabad, but i think it was too early for them to have a minyan...

and then at the gra, it took a while to gather ten and i was losing my faith in the shteiblech in Yerushalayim... no minyan at such a time?!

couldn't be..., after some waiting we had a gevaldig shacharis and at the end of davening....

"REB LEVI YITZCHAK MIBARDICHEV WOULD GIVE UP HIS OLAM HABA FOR ANOTHER YID TO BE SAMEACH! ONE MORE CHICKEN... ONE MORE FISH..., REB LEVI YITZCHAK MIBARDICHEV WANTS ALL YIDDEN TO BE BSIMCHA!!!"

I thought for a second, could it be? is that our heilige rebbe?

well, no glasses and not exactly in the neighborhood of ave j, k, l or boropark needless to say, i smiled a big smile ;D ;D ;D ;D i knew i had to share...

anonymity? im not living in Yerushalayim anyway... just visiting... were you at my minyan?

Oy struggle!

you are going to the wrong places!!!

first of all the ultimate minyan factory is zichron moshe by kikar shabbos.they have marriv till like 10 minutes before alos then u got the mir shteible.u never wait for than half a minute for a minyan.

the kosel obviously.

even the central bus station is pretty constant even though its only room for one minyan (though they do make them outside sometimes if theyre in a rush and there are lots of people) the gra?shver dude.really shver.
