goyishe names on the forum
Posted by Kevin Pond - 09 Jul 2012 00:11

i wanted to be meorer about an unbelievable kilkul on this forum- the tendency of some of the p'rutzim here to call themselves by goyishe names, R"L.

what ever happened to 'shelo shinu es sh'moseihem?" they zicher never heard of this, or simply don't care. Or both, probabaly.

Not only they are shakua betaava; they give themsleves false idnetities (!!!!) related to goyim. No question they are just trying to imitate the film stars (not that i have any clue about what those are, you know).

the one who was magdil b'chet is one by the name of Kevin Pond. a name that emits so much tumah. He should be kicked out of this forum, before his hashpa'a on the youngsters gets out of control, lo aleinu.

With such a name, he may end up going to a Li*a conc*rt in Mia*i, chalila (please excuse the nibul peh) kevin pond was a name that i chose completely randomly... it alludes in some ways to my real (and very jewish) name...

it just that i felt that some people in the forum had issues with it, so i decided to make some good fun, that's all....

keep cool, guys! keep smiling & laughing in the face of the yetzer!
