Posted by tehillimzugger - 29 Oct 2012 18:46

All this talk about names lead me to think about the halachic ramifications of say, Chuna Feitel calling himself TehillimZugger. I'm sincerely hoping this thread will schlep Dov into the Beis Medrash; Zeh hacheili, B'ezer tzuri v'goeili:

A. Say Chuna Feitel is getting divorced [gasp!], would he be required to mention the name TehillimZugger in the Rabbinic Divorce document commonly known as Get- an acronym popular legend suggests stands for "Gittel Trayna"- a famous dear devoted- klavta, who led many a husband running for said document, or not?

[i]Please don't comment that this particular Chuna Feitel is not engaged yet, so how can he divorce- this is a sensitive issue, we don't want to hurt Chuna Feitel's sensitive feelings...[/i]

[The Talmudic precedent for this question may be found in Tractate Gittin [Babylonian, Vilna ed.] folio 34b: "A woman named Miriam, some refer to her as Sara".]

B. Independent of above answer, in the event he is required to cite username in document, would he be required to write "T.Z." or "TZuggs" and other nicknames associated with said username, or not?

[A halachic precedent may be found (although arguably, the cases discussed are not completely similar) in Responsums: Mahara"m Schick (E.H. §163), Maharsha"m (Vol. III §187)]

I plan on returning to this thread to discuss these [and other] points, first let's hear what the oilam thinks.

P.S. Hurricane Sandy delayed me considerably in posting this post, and I'm not sure when I'll be able to continue, first, let's get Dov in here... HEH HEH [Khalled! Arois fin biss medrash, goyatz!]

Dear Mr. Munee,

To change the subject, your signature says: Poseach et Yadecha...

Isn't that a contradiction in dialect? It should either be 'Poseach es' or Poteach et'. No?

As the possuk says (Kings I 18:21):

?? ??? ??? ?????? ?? ??? ????????

Hi Dov, I'm still working on the actual Teshuva to this question- all this "Sandy-ness" is wearing me out, but you hit the nail on the head [or one of the nails on one of the heads] and therefore without further aplomb, I present to you a paragraph of hithertofore unpublished teshuva by Rabbi Tankhum Zeesha:

The truth is that if this man is a proponent of the "Captain Kirk" theory. And will never allow anyone from the forum into his personal life [which means he won't recover and consequentially divorce...], there is no reason for him to mention it in the divorce document.

.. and the solution to the addiction (Kings I 18:39) -

???? ?? ??? ?????? ?? ?????? ??????? ?' ??? ??????? ?' ??? ???????

Surrender to Hashem.

On a totally unrelated note, in the Newberry Award nominated tale : But no Green Elephants! (a subtle hack on all those SAVE THE WHALES and GREENPEACE wackos) it mentions a bottle of Woodford rolling on the ground. no for those who are in the know, it is physically impossible for a Woodford bottle to roll, therefore we may need to change the girsal to "spinning on the floor", or "laying on floor" vdoik.

A quick shout to my phriend TZ, in regard to tvilat Esra, the talmud says the reason is that TalmudHachams should not be found like Roosters (as opposed to chickens) vdoik.
