Posted by tehillimzugger - 29 Oct 2012 18:46

All this talk about names lead me to think about the halachic ramifications of say, Chuna Feitel calling himself TehillimZugger. I'm sincerely hoping this thread will schlep Dov into the Beis Medrash; Zeh hacheili, B'ezer tzuri v'goeili:

A. Say Chuna Feitel is getting divorced [gasp!], would he be required to mention the name TehillimZugger in the Rabbinic Divorce document commonly known as Get- an acronym popular legend suggests stands for "Gittel Trayna"- a famous dear devoted- klavta, who led many a husband running for said document, or not?

[i]Please don't comment that this particular Chuna Feitel is not engaged yet, so how can he divorce- this is a sensitive issue, we don't want to hurt Chuna Feitel's sensitive feelings...[/i]

[The Talmudic precedent for this question may be found in Tractate Gittin [Babylonian, Vilna ed.] folio 34b: "A woman named Miriam, some refer to her as Sara".]

B. Independent of above answer, in the event he is required to cite username in document, would he be required to write "T.Z." or "TZuggs" and other nicknames associated with said username, or not?

[A halachic precedent may be found (although arguably, the cases discussed are not completely similar) in Responsums: Mahara"m Schick (E.H. §163), Maharsha"m (Vol. III §187)]

I plan on returning to this thread to discuss these [and other] points, first let's hear what the oilam thinks.

P.S. Hurricane Sandy delayed me considerably in posting this post, and I'm not sure when I'll be able to continue, first, let's get Dov in here... HEH HEH [Khalled! Arois fin biss medrash, goyatz!]

The Talmud discusses two cases of a man having distinct names in different places. One, the aforementioned Miriam/Sara. Two, in 34a regarding someone with names for Judea and the Galilee respectively. There are different explanations from the Rishonim with regard to both Gemaras, which makes it pretty difficult to explain the legal nuances resulting from these sources.

can someone else continue please?

I have told you this before, BenDurdye puts an interesting twist on Khalleed- Whereas Bards in Harry's Son has him as a Shucher in jail, BenDurdye creates a new character who seems to be the Bardichever concealed by a stocking mask, so as long as we're not sure who he is we can't really give him dinim, like, is he a ben-cham, or a ben yisroel?

It also depends on Ruchi Schwartz, Yanky's babysitter has nothing to do with Khalleed, while Zanvil's daughter is afraid of him so...

Dov,

You are totally underestimating someone who would spend 2 hours of 1st seder having an indepth study of Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire, in later years i faked sick and polished off The Order of the Phoenix in 1 day (what a pain of a book) and then when i finally got my hands on the Half Blood Prince -(DEEP story!) and The Deathly Hallows (also pretty deep) skipped to days of Kollel and finished them in the Bathroom.

Cheers!
