waiting for the fresh bread to come out of the oven, the smell is wafting thru my apt. As is th smell of fresh roasted tomato soup, with tilapia on the grill. mmmm.....

See Schmutter, Mordechai, Cholent Mix, Jerusalem Publications 2013 Page 108

I made up that maareh makom, but I'm sure he discusses it somewhere

GUYS! Warning- he just brought something in that's not under my hashgacha!

...but. If it's from a rebbetzin it has to be kosher!*

* there's a talmudic precedent for that, whoever gives the proper maareh makom gets extra fleish

Well, that's a correct answer I guess, but I wasn't referring to that. Another good answer would be:

???? ?? ??? ?????? ?????? ????? ??? ??? ?????? ?????- ????? ??? ??? ??? ?????

But I meant like a much-much-super-better Talmudic precedent, and it's a "precedent", not a "concept". The contest is still on guys. [Whaddya know- I started the names thread in the bais medrash and it got moved here, maybe this can get moved to the bais medrash!]
