

Late at night on GYE

Posted by RoshYeshivasSon - 27 Aug 2013 08:03

It's getting late. I really should have been in bed a while ago but I keep reading all these interesting posts on GYE. Oh no! I here my wife coming down the stairs. (Slam the cpu shut).

Wife: What were you doing?

Me: Oh, nothing.

Wife (angrily): Were you on the computer?

Me (embarrassed): yes.

Wife: You have to learn how to shut off the cpu. It gets so late.

Personally I have years of practice at not letting anyone see what I'm looking at on the computer
A skill that's not in my CV

yes, we all do....that is...until we get caught...which we will...and truthfully, who cares? we know its wrong; we know it ruins our life, so (to me) just do it already, and stop! and thankfully, I have.

I'd much rather get caught surfing GYE than anything else...

People not knowing about my addiction? "I've been sober for many many years, I'm helping
