

some questions....

Posted by nitzotzeloki - 08 Sep 2013 20:52

it was pointed out to me by a child, who knows everything there is to know, that i have been singing things wrong all these years. apparently the correct wording of the well known shana tova song is

"Leshana Tova UmeSuka half a happy sweet new pear" i was wondering if the chevra could help me out with some questions i have

1. what is a happy pear? (does this have to do with the whole talking/singing to plants thing?)

2. what happened to the other half of the pear? did YOU eat it?!

thanks in advance

=====

=====

Re: some questions....

Posted by Gevura Shebyesod - 08 Sep 2013 20:59

If you have both halves you have a pair

=====

=====

Re: some questions....

Posted by tehillimzugger - 08 Sep 2013 21:10

A happy pear is one that has scrubbed a toilet.

=====

=====

Re: some questions....

Posted by skeptical - 08 Sep 2013 21:37

But not so happy is the one who has to eat it!

=====

=====

Re: some questions....

Posted by nitzotzeloki - 08 Sep 2013 22:44

skeptical wrote:

But not so happy is the one who has to eat it!

=====

=====

Re: some questions....

Posted by Pidaini - 08 Sep 2013 23:17

I am afraid you totally missed the point.

it's like this

half-a-happy, sweet, new, pair.

and he was talking about a young new couple in middle of sheva brachos. They are happy, yet still a little worried so they're only half a happy.

(so it was a bracha for the grandpa turtle monkey, and all his fellow bachur pigs, to find their complete, very soon)

=====
=====

Re: some questions....

Posted by tryingtoshteig - 09 Sep 2013 17:22

nitzotzeloki wrote:

1. what is a happy pear? (does this have to do with the whole talking/singing to plants thing?)

=====
=====

Re: some questions....

Posted by ZemirosShabbos - 09 Sep 2013 20:04

pear = ???

??? = 64

half of 64 = 32

32 = ??

?? ???

?? ???

?? ????

????"?

=====
=====