Chanukah will begin shortly (for some of you out there, it started already), so while you are out there enjoying all the festivities and treats, please remember not to get carried away.

Remember,

oh no!

the doughnuts are back and in this round, new looks, new flavors

but the mess is the same

the ekky feeling afterwards are the same, if not worse

Jewish Weapons Of Mass Destruction

A pancake-like structure, not to be confused with anything a first-class health restaurant would put out. In a latke the oil remains inside the pancake. It is made with potatoes, onions, eggs and matzo meal. Latkes can be eaten with applesauce but COULD also be used to comb your hair, shine your shoes or lubricate your automobile. There is a rumor that in the time of the Maccabees, they lit a latke by mistake and it burned for eight days. What is certain is that you will have heartburn for the same amount of time. It tastes GREAT but will stop your heart if the grease gets cold.
