

Coping with... There are no new replies

Okay,

so you push the "My Replies" button,
and nothing.

nada.

There are no replies

How do you face yourself?

How do you convince yourself that life will go on?

What is your experience with life after "No Replies"?

What does it even mean "my replies"?

is that the same as sayin' "my posts"?

I once was on a call with guard and i told him that i still dont know the difference between all these thin's....my replies, my new topics, recent posts, my old but new topics and threads, recent topics of threads that have been read, all my unread topics but the thread was read with some of the posts, yada, tada, yada, etc.

But, all this is nothin'!

Where Da Hell is da "spoiler" button!?

And then you wonder why TZ and Pidaini don't return! What Da Hell would they have to say outside of the spoiler?

ok; my apologies.

Now, perhaps, you can answer one or two of my questions.

Thanks

dunno if you're being serious or not, but...

my replies = show all replies to any thread that I ever posted on since the beginning of time.

Actually I think "My Topics" shows all threads you ever posted on.

"My Replies" shows only unread replies on topics you've posted on, the same as the "new replies" number at the top.

precisely my point.

My replies shows all unread topics from threads where you were gonna post, but instead posted on a thread of a similar topic but only as a quick reply to someone else's post.

A "thread" and a "topic" are the same thing (I think).

Cords it might be confusing for you because you post on every thread.
