

Embarrassing things we all do and think

Posted by Grant400 - 07 Aug 2020 06:17

I realized that most of the embarrassing things we do, we all do. I figured it would be funny if I listed some and any of you can share yours and we can all get a good laugh realizing we all do the same stuff:

1) "Klapping" selach on shabbos by mistake and immediately opening our hand and scratching our chest and arm for a really long time, maybe even sliding to other places like "oh! This itch wont let up!" Same with kissing our tefillin during krias shema by maariv.

2) When I daven for the amud I always check my phone or listen to the guy next to me to make sure I'm saying the right "yom" before blurting out the ending, even though I already know what day it is.

3) When we get caught staring through the car next to us's window we carefully continue to look in the same direction, just missing eye contact...like, "I wasnt looking at you pick your nose- I was intently staring directly at the spot of bird stuffs on the hood of your car"!

I was chazzan for maariv and after the first kaddish, I took 3 steps back instead of saying Barchu!

Oh how great it is to daven Ashkenaz!! One less opportunity

Mmm... I found myself bowing at the bracha ho'kel hakodosh the other day because I was tipped off by the word "Selah" which is just before the bracha "hatov shimcha u'lecha," but that is only in Ashkenaz, so we each have our fair share of opportunities...

Apparently the Chodesh was inaugurated in the beis hamikdash in yiddish. The ??? must be too.

If your shul don't know yiddish, you don't get a molad??

If you can say it in yiddish by teleprompter and break your teeth in the process, you're more frum, for sure

"teleprompter" is a funny mental image.

Though some Gaboim do sound like our current mumbling president as they struggle through it

Our mumbling president - are we allowed to embarrass him here?

"Folks. I have great news and bad news.

The good news is that I've been appointed as this season's mo'led crier.

Warning: Spoiler!

To be perfectly honest I made myself laugh too.

Lord knows I needed a laugh

Made it all the way through V'emuna Kol Zois this morning after Shema. Only realized when I kissed my Tzitzis by V'omru Chulam. Don't even know where THAT idea came from
