Hi, did somebody heard from this company flip phone?

sunbeamwireless.com

it's from a non jewish company and this is what their owner told me

"Your perspective is very valuable to us. We're part of a Christian community that struggles with many of the same things as Jewish communities, regarding technology. So we're trying to make products to help with that."

this is from a goyish kop!! how much more to we need to be carefull with what we do!!!
