

The Grouchery: Haven for the Grumpily Disgruntled

Posted by youknowwho - 08 Mar 2024 15:01

Speaking to a few friends offline gave birth to this idea, it seems to be an urgent and immediate necessity.

Welcome to...The Grouchery: Haven for the Grumpily Disgruntled

This thread is a place where one can feel free to rant, vent and gripe.

It is a safe haven for negativity, sourness and blahness.

It is a place where one can be sure to find a healthy dose of demotivating advice. It is a place where any kind of positivity is strictly forbidden.

It is a place where you can vent about what a rotten day you're having and not worry that people will then reach out with concerned pm's/texts...cuz nobody really cares. And that's perfectly fine, why should anybody care?

Please Remember:

-No profanity (Sadly)

-No personal insults (Sadly)

- Absolutely no: Nice, positive, warm, loving, optimistic, motivational, supportive or inspiring posts. (Not sadly)

Enter at your own risk!

Fourteen days clean, installed a filter on my work computer at great personal inconvenience, and I still can't set things on fire by looking at them! Where are my #@&% eye-lasers! What a scam! I want a refund on my GYE membership fee!

We were supposed to go away for pesach and now my wife got sick and may not be able to travel (she's like "can barely get out of bed" sick) so here I am less than a week to pesach and possibly have to make it all myself. while taking care of a bunch of kids all by myself, and a baby who wakes up every 2 hours at night (screaming right now), and holding down 4 jobs. havent davened witha minyan in 2 days and havent opened a sefer in 3 weeks....any reason I should want to wake up tomorrow?

I guess i shouldnt have mentioned the fact that she went to the mikva

I feel like its when the pastor said in that marriage video:

"if there's someone here whose wife enjoys sex more than you, I think I speak for all of us when i say that we hate you"
