

The Grouchery: Haven for the Grumpily Disgruntled

Posted by youknowwho - 08 Mar 2024 15:01

Speaking to a few friends offline gave birth to this idea, it seems to be an urgent and immediate necessity.

Welcome to...The Grouchery: Haven for the Grumpily Disgruntled

This thread is a place where one can feel free to rant, vent and gripe.

It is a safe haven for negativity, sourness and blahness.

It is a place where one can be sure to find a healthy dose of demotivating advice. It is a place where any kind of positivity is strictly forbidden.

It is a place where you can vent about what a rotten day you're having and not worry that people will then reach out with concerned pm's/texts...cuz nobody really cares. And that's perfectly fine, why should anybody care?

Please Remember:

-No profanity (Sadly)

-No personal insults (Sadly)

- Absolutely no: Nice, positive, warm, loving, optimistic, motivational, supportive or inspiring posts. (Not sadly)

Enter at your own risk!

Starting off in the morning, I knew today was gonna be a long one, with a long drive to get there, and of course, the drive back. A few minutes after we pull out, my car starts overheating. On first thought this wasn't too concerning, seeing as my car has been leaking coolant for a while and I have a bottle in my trunk for such occasions. What was concerning was that I'd topped it off in the driveway, and upon checking it, the tank was still full. There's apparently another issue with my vrumm-vrumm.

Seeing as my beep-beep could no longer make the long drive safely, we took the other guys car. That being the case, I couldn't really protest when he said he had to make a stop on the way home. (Added probably 20 minutes)

And then the snow....

P.S. i walked into my house at 11:33 p.m. and sat down to supper which had been sitting in the crockpot for over 5 hours on low (why not Keep Warm, for crying out loud!!!) and was really dried out.

Are vrumm-vrumm and beep-beep censored cuss words? Or do you have too many little brats at home.

Look at this humble-brag/flex on the grouch thread. "Oy poor me, I got home so late and had such a tough day and now am still going to shteig and daven."

Bah! Humbug!

What's with everyone, is everyone's life all of a sudden all hunky-dory, did you all board the life's-good-happiness-train, let it out, grouch and grumble

Fine. If you insist.

Last week, after a long day and a bunch of driving, I, alone in the car fell asleep at the wheel, spun around and ended up on the grass divider (between northbound and southbound).

As if that wasn't enough, a couple of days ago I was driving with my family in the car, slid on some ice, slammed into the concrete divider thing and, presumably, totaled that vroom-vroom.

And the best Grouch of all? My work car barely has a scratch and requires repairs (starting at over $4,000), and the family beep-beepitty-beep-beep is the one that's gone.

Warning: Spoiler!

Hey, Big Talker, where the beep is YOUR Grouch, huh?

Oooooffffff don't even get me started, this week after reading some BOTG I stupidly and naively got all seminary girl in the eyes and decided make a kabala not to listen to any podcast before I went to sleep, (now chill out and let me grouch before you turn into a whole t4 ranting rage monster) there's no other way to define the past few nights besides for a total flopping darn it flippity beep-beep, how am I expected to fall asleep while reading some stupid Jewish book, what a dumb idea whoever thought of it, and don't even get me started on going to sleep like a normal person by just lying in bed because big whop that's all it is – laying in bed, last night was the worst of all at 3AM while the rest of my room was poofing in la-la land I was getting berated by my own clock (should've broke it when I had a chance). On top of all that one of my chavrusas went to his second cousin's aunt's cat's daughters-in-law son's father's grandfather's great nephew's pidian haben which could've been nice except that even after learning for 2 hours by my flippity darn it self I can't even tame my boredom or take a nap with some good ol' daily wire or what not.

Hey grouchy grump, yeah cause listening to Matt Walsh trash the living daylights out of all us lazy 20 year old P addicts sure brings a true smile and grin to my face.... so then I try moving over to knowles who thinks he's way smarter then he is quoting his stupid philosophy that any good yeshiva bochur could be mechaven to or he goes on bouncing around his qoutes from CS louis..... time for Klavan oh woops he's a pervert and a meshumad but also really funny..... I guess I'm just stuck with good old Ben..... but then he starts chatting about movies I know nothing about or some controversy betwwen some Hollywood actors I know nothing about.....so we try Verdict with Teddy and Ben Fergeson tooting their horn for being right about things every good yeshiva coffee room hoker knew months before they said it.....and don't even get me started on brainless Hannity.....
