i don't know about Canada, but in the US of A bidding goes up not down...

and besides, if Bardy tells Billy how much value you place on his ear he might send some kickboxing goons to 'decorate' your Zamboni snow cholint

two shovelfils of snow

rock salt

carrots (borrowed from the snowman)

raisins (remove bugs)

meat (no ears from great adventure please) wrap the pot with scarf (from snowman)

leave it open a little so it won't be hatmana protest the budget cuts by leaving out the meat (shkoyach michael) serve it with snowshovel (toiveled) bring to table in toboggan (toiveled) of course, don't forget the Woodford glaze

i protect my ears by labeling them so in case they get lost in Great Adventures they can be listed in the Lost/Found gemach

Going back to cholint

Is it chu"lint

Or chew-lint

Or. (Potatoes in mouth) Ilke cho-it

How is it pronounced

Another thing

You never will hear a chassidish guy say

Chu"lint

But yeshivish guys could slip and say chew lint!!
