baseball possums? is that when you wack them on the heads and watch their skulls split open and bleed their contents all over aunty-jennie's white carpets?

For shame For shame dt,

By us we're makpid to crazy glue them to the double yellor line, and run them over with a '73 Chevy pickup....

Take it from me, that adds flavor to those little boogers!

It's a whole different pie that way!

if you run them over with an ATV then the wheel texture makes them look like waffles

Slow down there Rebbe,

After all EY is no third world red-neck backswater hickville,

We've actually got Zoglobek organic mock 'possom style (soya and tofu) microwavable dinner pies Behashguchas HaBedatz (chassidishe road-kill only- does that mean that they toiveled the car or the driver? by inz in der heim hut men makpid gevain oif both).

Problem is, that's the way they taste too...

Dang I miss Bardsville!

Maybe Billy will come on pilgrimage and bring me a specimen or two...

(My last flight on Continental was like that, but that'll have to wait for a different time).

KOT,

EBD
