hi everybody. clean 100 days here. but looking for chizuk in continuing this journey to where we all know we want to be. A little about me. born modern- became frum later in life. Had prob with m* since I was able to. I began working toward recovery about 2 years ago. I had a lot of ups and downsn, I am finally at a point where things in that area of life seem to be leveling out. only thing is everything else is so up in the air..... I actually dont know whether Im comin or goin. But Hashem has a plan for all of us, and thats what we need to follow.

Wanna go live in a monastery on a secluded mountaintop?

Don't human beings need a bit of pleasure? If we only look at what we REALLY need to look, won't life be a bit to stifling?

No.

Since when was it that looking at naked woman is the only form of pleasure in this world?

Day128 bh, my comp is once again whitelist locked. This complicates work but simplifies a lot of challenge to sobriety'

Ps- yesterday was also not too good as far as looking at p*. I spent a decent amnt of time

To add to UAJ's cment above: its rare that I see people in p* movies smiling and I don't think I have ever smiled personally when looking at it... Usually I smile when s/t makes me happy. P* doesn't make me happy... It anestithizes me from life in a world of fantasy. One little feeling of joy looking at my kids fills me up w/ happiness and puts a smile on my face more that endless amnts of this bad stuff.

In other words, what you are saying I really meant to say was "Since when was it that looking at naked women was pleasurable at all." Thanks for the clarification.

O'moTtel's irish pub is open NOW!

And it always popped in my mind, too, how miserable people in p**n appear, even the men. It would be a double-hitter for me if someone was sincerely enjoying themselves, but I think I only saw it once.

It's not meant for joy, to be sure.

How right is Zemmy to refer you to your kids for joy in life. :D
