Hi,

I introduced myself, not long ago, Here. But I have grown since then, and have outgrown my small house in the "Introduce Yourself" part of town. I am a Jr. Member and soon will be a "Full Member" IY"H, so I decided I needed to build a new house in a new neighborhood. I looked around at different neighborhoods and saw some spectacular houses in "Wall of Honor". I see that Zemmy and Bards have built here among others, so I decided to plant myself here as well. I will hopefully build some walls of honor myself, and continue to make great friends along the way.

I plan to use this as my main posting thread. So please come in and make a l'chayim, or enjoy some chocolate babke and fresh brewed coffee, or just stop by to say hello.

It's a privilege to dwell among such chashuve yidden!

Very well, thanks! I had a good shmooz with a fellow GYE member last night, and a good shmooz with my wife about GYE issues afterwards, so I am feeling really good now. I am working on "getting out of isolation" and expressing my feelings. It is really very therapudic for me, and good for my marriage.

It's a zemiros from the heiliga Frank Sinatra...

When you're smiling

When you're smiling

The whole world smiles with you

When you're laughing

When you're laughing

The sun comes shining through

But when you're crying

You bring on the rain

So stop your sighing

Be happy again

Keep on smiling

Cause when you're smiling

The whole world smiles with you

I had a thought. The nachash said to chava "eat from the tree". She said "I can't because I will die". The nachash replied "no you won't". Well, we need to give the nachash a taste of his own medicine. When he says "do x, y, z". We say "NO". Then he says, "but you have to or you'll just die!". We need to calmly say to him "no I won't".
