Hi,

I introduced myself, not long ago, Here. But I have grown since then, and have outgrown my small house in the "Introduce Yourself" part of town. I am a Jr. Member and soon will be a "Full Member" IY"H, so I decided I needed to build a new house in a new neighborhood. I looked around at different neighborhoods and saw some spectacular houses in "Wall of Honor". I see that Zemmy and Bards have built here among others, so I decided to plant myself here as well. I will hopefully build some walls of honor myself, and continue to make great friends along the way.

I plan to use this as my main posting thread. So please come in and make a l'chayim, or enjoy some chocolate babke and fresh brewed coffee, or just stop by to say hello.

It's a privilege to dwell among such chashuve yidden!

A pushete yid, yes. I've seen alot of them around, and i'e often wondered any of them is Eliyohu Hanovi.

But to be disguised as a sexaholic, i don't know... it' too taboo....

i hope nobody from my family is here... (actually i hoped nobody was here even before this

Just incidentally, a funny thing a/ways happens when family or friends discover each other in recovery:

They become closer than ever before and end up the most valuable family relations of all, forever and ever. It's a beautiful thing to see.

i said over the vort too!

(inastruggle, when i asked you to pass the wine at the seder, i meant the Yatir, not the cheap White Zinfandel, but i do appreciate you correctly guessing all my "is this matza broken?" questions) lets keep this between us ok?

besides whats wrong with the cheap wine anyway? do you think you're better than the rest of us? there you go again being more machmir just like on shabbos when you have to sing every

(maybe we should keep our other issues out of here)

I saw a great quote:

"Good decisions come from experience

Experience comes from bad decisions"
