Hi,

I introduced myself, not long ago, Here. But I have grown since then, and have outgrown my small house in the "Introduce Yourself" part of town. I am a Jr. Member and soon will be a "Full Member" IY"H, so I decided I needed to build a new house in a new neighborhood. I looked around at different neighborhoods and saw some spectacular houses in "Wall of Honor". I see that Zemmy and Bards have built here among others, so I decided to plant myself here as well. I will hopefully build some walls of honor myself, and continue to make great friends along the way.

I plan to use this as my main posting thread. So please come in and make a l'chayim, or enjoy some chocolate babke and fresh brewed coffee, or just stop by to say hello.

It's a privilege to dwell among such chashuve yidden!

I guess you are fortunate enough that you do not snore. Otherwise your wife would be happy to hear the sound of water heralding the end of the snoring for the night.

Special for the rest of us, the mishna berurah says to wash next to your bed.

If i remember correctly, there are special halachos about washing next to your bed when it can wake someone up (special as in not washing there).Don't rely on me though, ask your local orthodox rabbi.

Tehillim Zugger--thank you very much, I needed that. The reason why I don't wash by my bed is I don't have one of those bowls to do so. also, when I was at a learning program last summer, the sinks were by the bathrooms, and no one seemed to be makpid on that.

Very correct that the way I said that was azus panim. I apologize

Buy a bowl at your local 99 cents store.

Also please don't apologize to TZ, it's good for him when someone is an azus panim to him.

(uh oh)

Wooh! I'd wear a kaftan before making swipes like that at my brother TZ, man. Better yet, make it a shissel. They are tougher and more protective.

Let's not go there.

To paraphrase my wife:

For half the month I can easily stop you from snoring but during the other half when the only thing I can do is call your name, it takes quite a while to get you to stop

This is the "home" of Gibbor120 [though we seemed to have forgotten, and hijacked it] NOT his bedroom, Hilchos Niddah in the Marrieds only please.

A little more than 99 cents. Nice and big - no spills.
