

Elul

Every year during the month of Elul I feel like It's easier to overcome my desires for lust and masturbation. Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur follow and I really think I'm gonna stop for good...forever!. Succos passes and then a few weeks later I'm usually back to where I began....How do I know my 47 days of not lusting will continue for a lifetime. How can I make sure of that?? Its a scary to think you've come so far to know that eventually my streak will be over and Ill go back to my old ways (CHAS V"SHALOM).....
