

Stii going strong

Posted by poshut yid - 17 Dec 2008 16:10

Today is day 14 and Bli Ayin Harah I am still going strong. I commented in an email to Elya yesterday that I feel so liberated now. There are times I miss it but I know if I even look back I will become a pillar of salt. My davening is more meaningful and I am trying to make myself a better person.

With all of your help I hope I will succeed!

P.Y.

I like that saying ""I know that I even look back, I will become a pillar of salt".

I updated your chart and added that saying ;D
