What does that mean "where y'all from"?

I started off today feeling really low and pissed off that I have to start again from the start.

I was in a really dark mood, I only think about how bad the thing is after I have done it, another trick of the Yetzer Horoh!!

I dont think about it before I do it, only after to get me depressed.

I was thinking that I can't control what happened back then, I'm only in control of the now. Whatever happened back then, was Hasgocho Protis, and now I have to forget about it and move on.

Whenever I check out the news, which I do every day, it depresses me in a way, but it also inspires me to fight harder, as we really need Moshiach, and his arrival is imminet.

As I'm writing this I'm thinking. "It was so stupid to slip up, now Moshiach's coming and you've completely messed up, You have no hope!"

But I have to believe that even this is just the Yetzer Horoh, because it's Poonkt Farkert, Davka because Moshaich is coming, I have to worry about today and do whatever I can do now, today, in the moment, what happened yesterday doesnt matter.

It's very hard to focus and to stay positive, but I'm trying.

I'm not going to go on the computer again today, until tonight. I find that I'm very vulnerable during the day.

Holding on HARD AND STAYING BESIMCHA!!!!

Another thing I realised is, is that the Yetzer Horoh will even take something like Moshiach, noch, and completely twist it to serve it's purpose, to get me depressed.

Sorry for all the typo's by the way, it's hard for me to type and concentrate on spelling at the same time!

Net, as long as you keep working hard like you are now, you will be in the head rows when Moshiach comes. And he's coming any day!

Chart updated.

You may not be in Tzaha"l, but you are in Tza'h - Tzivos Hashem. And we need that even more than Tzaha"l now. They don't realize it, but we know the truth.

What city or region of the country are you in?

Ya'll is plural for YOU!

Lighten Up.
