

Hashem, please open up the road for me!!!

Posted by pischoshelmachat - 12 Mar 2013 20:30

---

I started my 90 day journey last Shabbos and it feels great so far. I know that I will walk into an ambush any time and I daven that with my little hishtadlus in joining this wonderful community of GYE and with the chizuk from my new partner, I will be able to pass my first test.

In the mean time I thank the RBS"O for every day that I am able to stay clean.

What a breath of fresh air.

I am now almost 46 and I so badly want to be mesaken this while I am still in the young years so that my Teshuvah can be complete.

I don't like to talk or even think about what I have done in the past because it is too painful for me to face the horrible things that I did that are so not who I really am. I want this to be the beginning of my new life that is Tocho K'Baro.

I cry every day that my children should be pure and grow in Torah and Yiras Shomayim but how can I expect the RBS"O to give me ehrliche children if I don't fix myself. I just daven to the RBS"O that my children should always be Yirei Shamayim and not be punished for my weaknesses.

=====

Re: Hashem, please open up the road for me!!!

Posted by cordnoy - 26 Jun 2013 00:20

---

See, the road to 90 (which I am on again) is a noble one and can be very productive, but it also has the drawback of looking ahead. "Oy, how will I ever get there? Its so far away!" Many posters here say to "focus on the moment at hand." Not even one day at a time, but rather....each second...make this decision the right one.

The days will accumulate as you (we) go.

So, 90 days is a total of hundreds or even thousands of decisions (hopefully one needs to make less of them as the days go by) that were made in a positive sense.

I write for you, others and for myself.

=====

Re: Hashem, please open up the road for me!!!

Posted by reallygettingthere - 26 Jun 2013 00:49

---

I've head many times from R'A Schorr that when we say in maariv, "V'haseir sattán m'lifaneinu u'meachareinu", this refers to the discouraging feelings that arise when looking at ones past or looking at the task ahead. Focus on our past misdeeds can lead a person to think, "what's the point? I've messed up so much already".

Looking at the potentially gargantuan task of doing teshuva and living a proper Torah life can also lead a person to think, "how will I ever do THAT"

Our job is to do the right thing (just for) now.

(...with the skills and emotions that we have now. In the future we will have a different set of tools. So don't worry about the future right now - my own hoisofo)

=====
=====

Re: Hashem, please open up the road for me!!!

Posted by cordnoy - 26 Jun 2013 01:21

---

Wow

That's a powerful vort for those words

I'm gonna try to use them tonight

I still need to create that "lust for hashem" mode that people have been saying.

I'm wondering if we should make a forum or booklet of vorts on tefillah that paarticulary address our situation.

Perhaps it will allow us to connect more by tefillah.

I say us; I mean myself and whoever else might have a connection problem by davening, especially due to the distance we put in between.

Thank you

=====
=====

Re: Hashem, please open up the road for me!!!
Posted by pischoshelmachat - 28 Jun 2013 01:28

---

Hi My Dear Friends,

I have told the YH so many times that I dont want to play with him. He keeps coming to the door and tells me "I know that you really do want to play with me". I saw a post about the innkeeper who wanted to change his clientele so he just kept his door locked until the dirty and vulgar boors stopped knocking at his door. Then he was able to renovate and create a welcoming environment for fine upper class gentlemen.

Well my inn is still on the go to list for the Y"H but my doors are bolted closed. The bolts are getting loose from the steady pounding of the vulgar boors who used to frequent my joint.

I will continue to tighten and reinforce my door until the boors just stop coming and give up on my place. Then I can welcome the RBS"O with open arms.

I am being a bit aggressive asking the RBS"O to help me clean up the joint and help me keep the bolts secure. I think I'll just hand over the keys to the joint to the RBS"O and relinquish my control to him. He will reinforce my door bolts and help me get everything cleaned up and prepared for the high class guests that I look foward to welcoming into my inn.

Hashem, PLEASE HELP ME!!!

=====
=====

Re: Hashem, please open up the road for me!!!
Posted by Pidaini - 28 Jun 2013 01:29

---

KUTGW KOMT!!!

Just remember that you're not alone!!

=====

=====

Re: Hashem, please open up the road for me!!!

Posted by cordnoy - 15 Jul 2013 03:32

---

Pidaini, Pischoshelmachat:

It seems that we are all on day 28 or so.

Do you want to form an official mezuman?

B'hatzlachah

=====

=====

Re: Hashem, please open up the road for me!!!

Posted by inastruggle - 15 Jul 2013 07:55

---

Wow! you're really shteiging. KUTGW!

=====

=====

Re: Hashem, please open up the road for me!!!

Posted by Pidaini - 15 Jul 2013 13:55

---

Cordnoy, I'm game!! There is another one, Ezra's his name day 29 is his game!

We almost have an "elokainu"!!

=====

=====

Re: Hashem, please open up the road for me!!!

Posted by cordnoy - 15 Jul 2013 17:14

---

---

so lets get them on board and perhaps join a group or something

maybe phone conference

=====

=====

Re: Hashem, please open up the road for me!!!

Posted by pischoshelmachat - 19 Aug 2013 18:42

---

Hello my dear friends,

With my slipping and sliding all summer long, i have missed the opportunity to make Erev Yom kippur as my day 90 and fell out of the holy group of this noble goal. I feel stranded on the side with trains whizzing by while i am left behind.

Today I am boarding the train and although i missed many opportunities in the past, my new opportunity begins right now.

I would love to find partners to reach our goal of 90 days the week before Chanukah.

Dear friends, please join me on my train as we come closer to the RBS"O and claim our lives back from the clutches of the YH.

=====

=====

Re: Hashem, please open up the road for me!!!

Posted by cordnoy - 19 Aug 2013 18:49

---

Welcome to the train

We are all on the same one

heading in same direction

=====

=====

Re: Hashem, please open up the road for me!!!

Posted by tryingtoshiteig - 19 Aug 2013 18:56

---

---

cordnoy wrote:

Welcome to the train

We are all on the same one

heading in same direction

first stop is TODAY!

Doors open on the right.

=====

=====

Re: Hashem, please open up the road for me!!!
Posted by tryingtoshteig - 19 Aug 2013 18:59

---

Standing passengers who just boarded, please hold on tight to the overhead bars so you don't slip and fall. If you are uncertain about your destination, please ask the passenger sitting next to you for guidance.

=====

=====

Re: Hashem, please open up the road for me!!!
Posted by Gevura Shebyesod - 19 Aug 2013 19:07

---

And remember to thank the Driver.

=====

=====