

laughingman tries to count to 90.....

as of today all my posts are here as far as my own topics are concerned

i have had 2 falls but i am now a week into a new streak

i have had success in breaking some previously unbreakable habits not m***** habits ...thoses i have dealt with somewhat but even farther as a result of the rules that i follow through the 90 days and though i have slips about once in 2-3 days every day foward breaks that tooo down so that it becomes less frequent ....and eventually non-existent

i recently got the s3 and i have had soo far Thank G-d no desire to sttempt to use it for searching ****

i personnaly dont use software barriers for myself (for my kids i do of course)

i can break them too easy ...the only way out is personal honesty

as all of these things are for now personal actions and it is working ...hopefully it will continue though im sure the real war is coming

We all have things that trigger us. For me it can be stress from family and life. Hope you're feeling better today.

It may be helpful to speak to your rav and possibly a therapist who deals with marriage. There is probably a reason why she's no longer going to the mikvah. Any ideas? Is she more irritable, depressed, sick, etc. Also, does she know how hard it makes it for you? What if you want to have more children? Is she fine not having tashmish ever again? You don't need to answer the questions here, they're here for you to think through. I really believe that she has a reason and with effort you'll find out what it is and be"h solve it.

I thought of a real possible reason- maybe she heard of the rabbi who was recently caught having hidden video cameras in a mikva. So she's now worried that maybe the one she normally goes to might have them as well.

I know why ....its simple really ....its just frustrating .....i really should be using this time to work on breaking my lust problems ....

Also im certain that she neither heard that story nor does she need to nor do i think that is a problem here where i live....(if we have sunk that low ??? ???? ..)

This is more of a matter of time ....assuming that none of these issues turns worse than they are

Its just i have a lot on my plate nearly everyday and there is very little i can do to alleviate ...either for myself or others in my family

So far so good ....but yesterday i was pretty sick...

Couldnt even pray and it was rosh chodesh and all ...that really made me feel upset

Im feeling alittle better right now

Even when im sick ...if im not careful i can get involved in bad thinking and its consequences
....shows how sick i really am in another sense

I fell last week ....right during a good streak too...but thats not the chidush ...

Last week was definitely a case of learning more from falling then doing well ...

I have learned more about how far my addiction lies and what i am willing to damage to keep doing something i know is wrong in the heat of the moment ...

I have done my taphsic and restrengthened my commitment ....and even though like dov says i am "hiding behind a net persona" this is sometimes all i got ....especially with my schedual

Both my parents are in a nursing home ...my parents apt which used to be my home eons ago is being closed out (and probably renovated asap) i feel like i am being orphaned before my parents even pass G-d forbid

It's so sad to see that you're going through such a hard time. But remember that we're all here for you, and we share in your pain. As we go through life, we all encounter pain and suffering and sometimes we may wonder what is going on, and why Hashem is letting this happen to us. While we may not understand the big plan, there is comfort in knowing that we're not alone and that we have shoulders to cry on. IY"H all will be well, and we're looking forward to hearing good news from you.

Sometimes things happen and if you dont give yourself the benefit ...then no one will

But it needs to be reciprocated to all ....even Him ...to give the benefit of the doubt is to stop being a hypocrite alittle bit

But that doesnt mean you have to be an open target ...or your family ...sometimes i feel ...like the schools in our time really push our kids and by extension us too far

Wow. Agreed.

Who is making you or anybody a target, tho? Care to clarify?
