

laughingman tries to count to 90.....

Posted by laughingman - 14 Mar 2013 16:01

as of today all my posts are here as far as my own topics are concerned

i have had 2 falls but i am now a week into a new streak

i have had success in breaking some previously unbreakable habits not m habits ...thoses i have dealt with somewhat but even farther as a result of the rules that i follow through the 90 days and though i have slips about once in 2-3 days every day foward breaks that tooo down so that it becomes less frequentand eventually non-existent

i recently got the s3 and i have had soo far Thank G-d no desire to sttempt to use it for searching ****

i personnaly dont use software barriers for myself (for my kids i do of course)

i can break them too easy ...the only way out is personal honesty

as all of these things are for now personal actions and it is working ...hopefully it will continue though im sure the real war is coming

Every time that i come on here i just whinelike in real lifemostly because i am constantly looking at life in a way where i never had it when i did and now i dont cause i never appreciated itits been a never ending cyclei kinda live the rest of my life on auto pilot so that my kids have their lifebut i feel like i dont belong in a marriagei come from a pretty messed up worldwhere there are no parents or familyonly the "system"an emotionless entity that mostly kept us on life support and educationand gave us freely so we would feel better about our situationbut i was always waiting for the day i would " graduate" and be on my own ...which i did ..for too short a time it would seemnow with my marriage in difficultyi sorta feel that way again ...i feel like i trapped myself

I have been told not to dwell on the past or even the effectsjust to focus on the good i havebut as a career negative person it sometimes feels impossibleand i dont even use what tools i havei have been here for nearly 5 yearsand with all my moaning i never learned to cry here INSTEAD of where it would cause damage

Im luckyif i just sit tight and be happy and not selfishi can just be there for my familyi dont do anything elsebut that voice pops in that reminds me "you coulda had it ALL!" and you blew itnow if im lucky i can simply teach my children not to repeat my mistakes

Best post of yours that I have ever seen here. The past had lots of upbeat posts that were not real, lots of whines that were useless. This post is gold, man. It's showing you are a man standing at the brink of reality. Starting to see it is not an abyss, but just -- reality.

I think you are so right about so much, here.

And especially useful is:

...but that voice pops in that reminds me "you coulda had it ALL!" and you blew itnow if im lucky i can simply teach my children not to repeat my mistakes ...

It's so good that you are starting to see that these voices are just that: voices. Just voices. Nothing to them, really. Just old news. Old enemies. Old lies. Pride keeps them alive and loud, while acceptance of an imperfect, blemished life can be allowed in by humility. And that will start the door opening up to a sane, useful lifetime ahead of you. You are young, your life is young, your kids are young. There is a lot more to do than just 'teach them not to repeat your mistakes'.

That teaching is a thing largely out of our power, I think. It's in G-d's hands what they actually learn. You and me can live life to the fullest and as honestly as we can today, that's all. They will learn what they will need to learn and there is a Good G-d here w us and with them Who takes care of things the way they need to be. I need to live with that, or else I get lost and drown in pretending I can manage and pull all the strings controlling for all contingencies, etc...a nutty way to live. Miserable.

Thank G-d there is another way. And you are starting to walk it.

Truly meaningful stuff. The kind we read on this forum and grow from.

Reality hits and its a tough swallow.

Do we roll over and play dead?

or

Do we rise to the occasion and develop ourselves - in the areas of life that we can - to the very best of our abilities.

" O G-d, give us the serenity to accept what cannot be changed,

The courage to change what can be changed, and the wisdom to know the one from the other"

I feel for you my brother

Mind if I comment on your last 7 words?

"I cannot overcome this by myself"

Yes and No

Yes - I can't recover without G-d guiding me, and without him by my side

No - The recovery needs me to start the engine.

If I'm not getting sober, it's my responsibility, not anyone else nor G-d

Yesterday i m**

I was busy feeling bad about things i had done in the past ...my marriage mistakesmy life mistakesand it being shabbat i wasnt able to call on anyonei was soo busy feeling sorry for myself ...

I remembered not to use a phone but not to refrain from something equally bad, if not worse

I recently got in contact with sa people near mebut i am still working up the courage and time to go to a meeting ...although i am not even sure that is where i need to bei do need therapythat is obvious like it is day i just dont know what kind or where to get it from

I havent been talking to anyone latelynot about anything i feel at least

I have not been here a longo timei have been rethinking what, if anything i wanted or was going to accomplish herethen i thought that it is all meant for somethingbut times have definitely changedi used to talk here alot about the 90 day chartbut thats only there to give chizukbut it can become a crutch tooover the years my understanding of just what i was doing wrongon to what was wrong with me in general and how weird my thinking had become ...and how much frustration reality checks would cause me now i start to think of not clean or fall but acting outand not being in control or understanding that i have no controland that my problem might be one of the most complexbecause it isnt simple to meand when i make it simple i succeedi stop thinking in terms of forever and only today ...and now ... i at the same time see thingsnot alll but some that get undone seemingly on their ownbut its not autonomous
