A journey to Hashem Posted by zvi - 20 Mar 2013 23:54

I am a teenager, aged 16 years old. Since I was 12, I have had lust-related problems. As I have got older, the problems have got worse. It started off with the odd thing, here and there- I was only 12, so I didn't really know what I was doing. I vaguely knew I shouldn't be doing what I was, but it didn't interfere with my life much. As I got older, and I started to find out what I was doing, and the severity of the Aveiros, my 'little problem' developed into an addiction. For the past 2 1/2 years, I have been acting out on a regular basis (at least once a week). Then, finally, I had a clean streak. A proper clean streak. For 66 days. But then it came back. I didn't even see it coming. All I knew was that I was on the computer, doing some school work, and then suddenly I was looking at images that I shouldn't be looking at, and before I could stop myself, I had been motzei zera levatala. Again. That was two months ago. After that, I lasted 14 days, but then it was over. I was doing the aveiros again, but on a much greater level than before. As it stands now, I'm only keeping myself clean for between 1-3 days at a time. Two nights ago, I acted out twice. I was depressed, angry with myself, and- unfortunately- angry with Hashem. How could He do this to me? Didn't he see that I wanted to stop? That I wanted to be close to Him? Anyway, the next day (i.e yesterday), I joined GYE. I'm currently on my second day clean, B'chasdei Hashem. But it's not going to be easy...

Clean is.....well, clean!

Hope you dance a bit today, like I do. Just to be clean this very day.

Haven't posted here for a few days- b'H everything's still good, but only just...

I came very close to falling a couple of nights ago, but b'H I'm still clean. It's getting difficult stopping myself getting complacent- I've been clean for over a week, and when that happens I always start relaxing mentally, and telling myself I'm sorted. Which I'm obviously not.

1 Rebbi, 2 friends, and (to a lesser extent) my father. Admittedly, I didn't tell my father myself, my Rebbi told him. The others were all me though.
