

Shlomo's Marching

Posted by Shlomo - 04 Apr 2013 22:28

I am now on my 6th day.

Short observation: since shemiras eynaim is a major issue, I try to take off my glasses outside.
. Yetzer hore came to me and said:
okay, you'll do it day or two, but You CAN'T do it ALWAYS. And if so, leave it. In this moment I was close to put them back on, but I remember what You guys say here: one day at a time. It helped.

By the way, I am not really addicted to pnvideos. But I am still struggling with the "major Right now I am full of enthusiasm and want to succeed, hopefully, this feeling will last aveira" as some call it.

May Hashem help.

Short observation: I think it's true for most of us: if somebody would come to you and say: "I'll give you a nice amount of money, if you just go and do this aveira - be moytzi zera", wouldn't you say "not interested"?

Isn't that the secret how he gets us?

@reb Yankl: thank You, I'll try not to get confused about the sides :D
