

The chronicles of inastruggle

Posted by inastruggle - 07 Apr 2013 05:50

I'm going to reintroduce myself for the record, and for those of you who haven't heard my story yet. I've been m for as long i can remember, my earliest memory of it was when i was in first grade i wasn't molested or anything b'h, i discovered it on my own. I obviously had no clue that it was assur (though i do remember thinking that something wasn't so kosher about it), and i didn't connect it to s*x until i was about 13, it just felt good so i did it. In eighth grade i found out about s*x and connected the two. It was also around that time when i discovered p. Eventually i also found out it was assur (through an article on wikipedia, which leaves a bit to be desired in the chinuch area).

I did try stopping but i wasn't too committed since i didn't know if it was really assur or not, since i never heard any rebbe speak about it openly, if i remember correctly my eighth grade rebbe mumbled something about shmiras habris which i don't think anyone understood, and even i wasn't sure if he was talking about what i was doing. Anyway when i got to mesivta the rebbeim did mention it and i knew it was assur but by that time it was already naaseh lo k'heter for long time already.

i knew that i should speak to a rebbe about it but i was too embarrassed. I did speak to one rebbe without telling him what the problem was (i think he guessed it) and he told me to try just to stop it for a short amount of time and then i could try for longer (a.k.a. baby steps) but that didn't really either help too much. Somewhere around twelfth grade i stopped m without p because it wasn't too hard to do and to be completely honest it was also getting a little boring.

I'm not sure how long ago i heard about gye but i think i read about it in the mishpacha and that motzei shabbos i checked it out, all i saw were some articles i read some and it didn't help at all.

i should add that like most unmarried people (i think) i thought that once i get married it would just go away so i was rationalizing that anyway it isn't a permanent problem and i'm koruv l'oness because i started so young etc. which i think was the reason i wasn't taking it too seriously.

So i continued to watch p and m pretty much whenever i was home until about three months ago when i was walking to yeshiva and i was listening to a shiur about the dangers of the internet and to do teshuva even if you fell, (i put it up in the kosher isle if anyone is interested) and something snapped and i realized that I HAVE TO STOP THIS NONSENSE, since the last time i was on gye i had read about it a few more times and saw some advertisements for it so i decided that i'm going to have to go on gye another time and become a member and (i don't remember this for sure but i think the second part was there) if it doesn't work then i'm going to talk to my rebbe about it.

When i went on gye it was completely different than before and i joined up and registered on the 90 day chart right away and didn't fall for about two weeks then i did about a month and now i'm 33 days clean which is my longest since joining.

in my next post iy'h i'm going to talk some more about what my situation is, and what i think my problem is, and how i'm dealing with it

I told my sis to stop bothering me because i'm doing important stuff.

So she tells me "you're just playing the bubble game, i hear it going" for all the poor souls who never chatted on gye and didn't get what happened, the sound that it makes when you get a new message is bloop. (which actually sounds nothing like the bubble for educational purposes i'm going to put the link after the warning.

WARNING: Click link at your own risk.

Some people find this game addictive and it may cause bitul zman and/or other problems relating to not eating or sleeping while playing a bubble game marathon. If these or any other harmful consequences occur due to clicking the link you will be held completely responsible and cannot seek restitution from Inastruggle in any form or manner.

without further ado, the originally named website:

more importantly i just realized something, this thread is an illegitimate thread and might be taken off gye any second. The reason i feel this way is pretty obvious soooo

EDIT: sorry i went on it and there were advertisements so i erased the link
If you're there please write a long post here by the time i come back next week

thank you in advance

try to fall asleep at night without being too curious just so this thread shouldn't be considered a non wall of honor thread chas v'sholom, i'm happy to Zemmy, i thought that the thread might get taken off because there wasn't a picture of dov's ~~eu~~ son on it. Once i'm on the topic i have a little vort to share.

I was wondering what psha in dov's picture was, mimah nafshach if his son is over three then where's his yarmulke? and if his son is under three then why doesn't he have short hair?

After a lot of ameilus i realized pshat in the picture. Under the picture it says "Baby-steps; Easy does it." then i realized that really the son is over three, ayyy where's his yarmulke? the answer is that he just fell so his yarmulke is on the ground, and what dov is trying to tell us is 1)when you fall ask the 'totty' to pick u up 2)smile even though you fell (KOT) ~~3)don't put your yarmulke back on again~~ 4)and of course just take baby steps until you learn to walk again.

About the statue, i don't think you should even suggest that it's counterfeit because it's worth a lot of money to us Other Creature Dentist enthusiasts (ocd for short).

to Dov and Reb emu,

I don't think you understand the complexity of the problem, I'll explain with a story.

A bochur wasn't coming to shachris so his mashgiach asked him why. He said because the other guys make noise in the dorm so he doesn't fall asleep until late at night. So his mashgiach suggested earplugs and the bochur was sure it would help.

The next morning the bochur rolls into seder at 11 o'clock and the mashiach walks over to him to ask what happened so he says that he wore the earplugs and fell asleep right away, but in the morning he didn't hear his alarm clock.

a mashal i heard:

A sheik went to the white house and asked his gabbai to get water so his gabbai gets him a cup.

After a while he asks him to get another one, and the gabbai comes back with a refilled cup.

Then he asks again and the gabbai comes back with an empty cup.

"what happened"

"someone was sitting on the well"

the nimshal is um, uh, it's obvious u should get it on your own
