

My 90 Journal

Hi all,

Ive been struggling with porn and more pron since a few years back. As most addicts can relate, I tried all the easy things nut to no avail. I have a phone chavrusa,emails etc.

I am not willing to go to a group, however i am willing on trying a weekly journal of my struggle. I hope that I can get support this way.

My longest clean period has been one month. If I can do 3, that would be great.

Triggers for me come from all things. The other day I was looking at a video posted on facebook, which triggered me to think about my good ole habit, which lead me to porn etc.

I've never written much about my addiction, perhaps writing will clear things up a little.

Would love feedback and support.

Hi Inastruggle and everyone else that may be following this post.

Bh I have been clean from last post until now. That makes me about a month clean.

The bad news is that i feel a little shaky right now. It may be a lot of factors, but I can't pinpoint it.

What i do know is that I must be extra careful.

It's definitely a great feeling to be free of lust. I just feel deep down that I can't go on forever. i feel like something is lingering on.

What would be the approach to say good bye?

I could do the one day at a time, but it doesn't work like that for me, since there are twists and turns..

Eg . now im feeling a little weak.

Tomorrow I may feel fine..

The one day at a time might actually be the perfect thing for this. In fact you pretty much said it yourself.

What one day at a time means is that we don't think about whether we're going to be able to be clean forever, or for the next week, or for the next day. The reason not to think about it is simple. It won't do any good. Thinking about if you can do it is only taking away from the task at hand, which is forgetting the whole inyan and living life instead.

Of course we need to plan ahead but that's all, once the plan is there forget it until it's that time.

Dov wrote about it here:

In short, when you're feeling weak, come here or do something to help yourself. When you aren't then forget the whole thing, and at all times don't worry about tomorrow until it's today.

Here I am. Succumbed to the demon of Lust. Luring inside of me.

It started yesterday, with a peek, and would not go away until i finished up just now.

I am proud to say this is the longest streak for a while.

I'm glad to have this place to share. I don't what good it'll do, but at least I feel like here people understand me.

Its the first time that I felt, like a stranger was trying to take me over. It wasn't even me. I really think that i need pro help.,.

I hope that I can move on.
