By His will, i will be able to do this... If I fail its due to my own shortcomings, but if i succeed its because of Him, to Whom all is praise is due.

Welcome aboard!

We're all in the same boat here on GYE, and we can all relate, because we've "been there".

What brings you here? What are you doing differently now?

We're looking forward to getting to know you!

Welcome to gye.

Like skeptical said, tell us a bit more about yourself.

Hatzlacha!

It's a good start, I started the same way. After a while I fell, once the lust hit I just didn't care about the count anymore I just wanted to fall, so I did.

What really worked for me was committing to stop and making safeguards and making myself accountable if I fell.

KUTGW.
