

Question about a fall

Posted by LeHavote Aish - 17 Nov 2013 09:40

Hi,

I definitely fell yesterday but I don't know exactly how. I did not have the regular white sticky semen but it was clear-ish and even had another time little yellow pieces in it.

Is that Zerah LeVatalah? Do I possibly have a physical problem? I know it Assur anyways but is it as bad as Zera LeVatalah? And does that count as fall?

B"H I am starting to go to live groups and getting a sponsor this week, but I just wondered how far I fell on Shabbat,

Thanks and Shavuah Tov!
