Hi guys its nice to be back. I was in Lakewood this week and didn't have any internet access so that's why I didn't get too involved in the chakira from before. Im doing fine today Motzei Shabbos but on Friday I saw very immodest cashiers at a bagel store and I cant get them off my mind. I have prayed to Hashem and even prayed for them but I cant stop thinking. Thanks

Maybe that's why a bagel comes with a hole in the middle - so that if we have a problem when looking at the bagel, we can divert our gaze and look at other things.

Hi guys its me today was a great day but I just was by myself with the same way i failed last night available. (the password holder isnt home and neither is anyone else.) As suggested by cordnoy i should write a long post why i dont want to slip now.

1. I will never find the perfect picture no matter how long i look. I will never be satisfied with what i have.
2. I will immediately feel bad about myself and wallow in my misery tomorrow.
3. Its so not worth it especially since i have to get up early tomorrow morning.
4. Now is the best way to make hashem proud of me. I went on the app and even typed in something inappropriate but i didnt get to even see the whole picture and i immediately shut the phone off.
5. I will make myself feel like nothing
6. The day will be an accomplishing day---read lots on GYE( bTW the stories on the old site are so good.)
7. I want to make you guys proud.

Good night

How'd it go?

That's a great list, even quite revealing.

Look at 1, for example, the fact that I am not satisfied with what I have is actually what drives me to lust in the first place, and only continues through the searching. Acceptance is one of the MASSIVE attitude changes that I have to make so that I don't start the searching in the first place.

Also 4, it's a great thing that I didn't finish, but what can I do so that I don't start in the first place?

and last but not least....Are you proud of yourself?

KOT!!! KOP!!! (and open up!!!
