

MY STORY...

Posted by Sasha 2 - 07 Apr 2015 21:28

I feel that it would help to share my basic story & hear what everyone has to say.

My story: when i was abt sixteen i once masturbated (More or less by mistake) im not sure but i think it was just that good feeling that pushed me to do it more and more and more! At one point in yeshiva there was someone who always spoke unclean and caused me to check out some sites (Porn etc...) when i got internet, and that got me hooked, there was nothing to do to stop it! (Even 6 years l8r!!!!) i just felt this need to masturbate with the porn, at one point in yeshiva without internet access i tried phone sex in place of the porn! All this warped my mind and i used to see people and think, wow they have a nice ____ etc. It drove me insane that i cant see normal things even like people around me, and cant think straight anymore!!

What does everyone think, is this just the enjoyment that caused this (like i think) or some underlying factor that i dont realize?

Purim itself was really ok, but Friday night (motzei purim here) was crazy hard for me!

I honestly don't remember feeling that way since I started this count again, I felt that I was gonna fall & there was absolutely nothing to do about it!! I realized that I am totally powerless and I davened that Hashem should help me get through this situation.

B"H I made it through ok!

I think what made me pull through was just the simple fact that I realized how far I've come & I can not start all over again.

I am presently working on the 4th step so I tried to think what might have caused me to feel this way but couldn't really see a clear explanation, I guess I got to work on it some more...

Your strength is an inspiration. You have some amazing accomplishments behind you. I can understand why you would not want to go back there. Hatzlacha with your amazing work!

I haven't posted for a while so here I go: I am home now for bein hazmanim and it's harder than I thought it would be, this is the time when I would have viewed everything and acted out in the past and just being in those situations and places that last time were so harmful are very triggering to me.

I also don't have easy access to Internet to post when I'm low or down...

But I know that I just can't allow myself to fall and I gotta pull through to my 90!!

Shasha,

I hope you find ways and tools to cope till you get back to Yisheva.

Print out reading materials for when offline.

I could usually get online once a day (I just don't always have access at the time when I'm feeling down).

I will bli neder try to post once a day (or something like that)...

For my post: This is being a lot lot harder then I expected it would be!

I think that if I wouldn't have been at 70 days clean I probably would have fell already (I know it's depressing to think that way).

I have a lot of time myself without anyone around so that definitely doesn't help my situation.

Lusting (back here in America!) is just so much worse then a week ago, I thought i was getting better as I was getting over it...

I sound like I'm giving up, but I really am trying and b'ezras Hashem I'm gonna make it!

I know exactly how you feel. I know you can do it. You may be alone but you're not alone --- we are here!

Some ideas?

1. Keep a schedule even though you dont officially have one. when you daven and where, what you do each day.
2. Post each day
3. Have [clean fun!]

Make yourself busy.

Look out what is possible.

Today was a little better because I had a bunch of errands I had to take care of.

I dont really have too many ideas of how to keep busy...

Anyone got any?

Thanks for all the ideas, I will really try to stay out of harms way...

I made myself sort of a schedule so i wont be home during the day at all, I will keep posting how it goes...

I hope I can and will make it! (I better)

Good Shabbos everyone
