

shua73 gets to 90 and beyond

Posted by shua73 - 14 Jul 2015 02:09

Hi all,

I have been having tons of ups and downs lately. However, I am committed now to get to 90 days without slips. My most recent addiction was to slipping. I would look at things that would possibly lead me to see inappropriate pictures. I am a curiosity addict. Good luck to me. I know I can do it.

It bothers you and its our pleasure to hear you out and show support. We all need emotional support just as much as good advice.

If you need a shoulder to lean on, speak your heart out.

That's what we are here for.

If every time we post we wonder if:

- we're being a bit of a pest
- we don't sound so intelligent
- maybe we shouldn't share certain things because we only want to sound successful

Then we are doing a disservice to ourselves and the forum as a whole.

Keep smiling keep truckin' and please keep sharing(without too much forethought)

Are you holding by GYE's definitions of slips and falls? Tempting as it may be to be overly stringent, it could also eventually counterproductive.

No,

I am evaluating falls differently. Because I struggle with trying to find things to search for that inadvertently show things that are inappropriate, I define for myself a fall as a search that showed me something inappropriate if i was looking for that inadvertent slip.

I just saw the article on npr about xxxchurch. Its so sad that so many of the comments are so negative. Well I guess its not my problem. Additionally, jewish or not, we're talking about an addiction here, not a hobby. It gives me a lot of chizuk that everybody here understands that its an issue. I feel the support. Thanks everybody out there. We are all suffering from a need that, nebach, is filled with pornography. Imagine if we could get that feeling without porn, we would Just saw this clip. www.wimp.com/powerwords/ I want to share it. It made me feel great. share it please if you like it. I feel it's not just words (but with just words it's powerful enough), but anything. It depends on how you look at things. always remember there is another more beautiful and positive way to look at it.
