Hi Guys,

I am about to embark on an 11-day intensive at the Center for Health Sex in Los Angeles and I really, really want to talk to anyone who has been through it. They told me a bunch of things that I would like to confirm before I go, also that a bunch of frum guys have done the program and have been successful...so...anyone here please chat with me! I really need to find out TODAY before Shabbos!!! I would be leaving on Sunday!!

Thanks!!

Good for you friend. I don't know anything about it, but the fact that you are willing to go to any length for recovery should serve you well. Best of luck!
