

just had a fall

I didn't believe this would ever happen again (I know the SA people are going to react with the one day at a time & you have to believe that you are not able to overcome it ...) but I didn't believe this was my situation - I didn't think this would happen.

I know exactly what happened - we moved to a new filter (VCF), but did not yet fine tune it & I tested how powerful it was and fell. This was crazy.

Success to you today!

I'm embracing the 1 day at a time approach - as well as communal chizuk approach, which I love about this forum.

I just did day one and am planning on tomorrow's one day. All the best to you.

Very kewl!!!!!!

360=??????? + ????

Unless you spell 'kigel' with a 'kaf' and not a 'kuf,' and you somehow disregard the 'Gimmel,' but how in the world would you spell "kigel" without a 'Gimmel'?

Oy Vey! Did you learn in Brisk??

Never knew a joke needs to Shtim...lolol

Very easily yungatch!

Drop da 'Gimmel' and put a shtreichel instead!

Isn't that what you do with the damn "G's"?

Had another fall!

I look back and see exactly how it happened:

1. met a vulnerable point in my day: having a work deadline and sat down to work on it late at night (tried extremely hard to finish earlier today)

2. We got a new filter (VCF) but didn't fine tune it properly yet (default block and allow particular sites) - I'm too crafty and persistent at getting around it.

3. Should have got on GYE!

4. Was not persistent on getting a sponsor or partner

took the following steps:

A. sent request to change filter settings

B. sent request for sponsor

C. went on to GYE

D. going to sleep so I can not mess up tomorrow

I have to catch this stuff early before the slippery slope begins
