Shabbat was a delight, for all that man neglects to bestow, our Creator makes it up to us with the best of favors.

Today is a day of loving kindness, praise our Maker, it is all for our personal blessing, I need to make sure I am in the will of my Infinite Father, leave all visible and unseen things to One. No matter what others do, I will and I am living in Blessed HaShem. Take courage we at least have a Eternal Friend who has our backs. I have learned that when all else fails us, our Maker can be trusted. Let us give our fellow man, a lot of space to error, they and we have a lot of growing to do. I have only one perfect place to look, it's not me, it is the Great Shepherd, and I am like a sheep who always needs tending by the One. I choose to consider all looking of lust as if I have looked at Noah after he was drunk, as I come in and out of this guard my eyes room, I lean on my Maker to rise to the better man I was meant to be from the beginning.

Day 41, morning

As a son Adam and Moses, my plan is be among this Jewish site for 110 days, then as Blessed HaShem permits alone from time to time. I love Ruth and the Kingly spirit of Boaz, and grant me to glean in my busy times, some from the grounds. Already among Jews of our time, I have pointed them to you. May the Abraham be fulfilled for the nations of today, may all the children of Adam find Abrahams seed as blessed in finding the statues, and commands that belong to the 70 nations. I am for you, before I met you. I am a hand in the land, if I can be apart of 2 Chron. 7:14. As one of the farmers to provide reapers corners for first the Jew, and then for the family of Adam. Or at least to die trying. I am a candle witness to my small world that Israel is the blessing of all nations, I pray and hope my inspiration, the children of Abraham shall fulfill their destiny.
