Hi,

I'm new.

Nervous.

Motivated.

Need Help.

I'm not sure if that is what Yesod meant to say.

For me the day after I fall is usually a good day and an easy day, only after being some time sober then it starts getting hard to fight.

Hi

your always so cute,

Day 10, I'm feeling good, I love the time I have now!

Have a great shabbos everyone.

For me the hardest day of the week is Motzoi shabbos i've got through one so far, i'm preparing my self for the next.

What kind of

(clarity, focus, determination, commitment) HONESTY and HUMILITY do we have on day #1

listen to Dov talk, you'd think he just had a horrible fall last week

What should I do?

I have looked at pictures online.

I have not done shichvas zera levatala and the pictures were naked but not the worst(meaning posing naked) should i start the count again?

I'm worried if i start again that i may completely collapse but if i don't maybe it doesn't mean anything anymore and i will collapse?

I'm so annoyed with myself

Sorry to hear

Maybe ignore the count for now and try a different tool

FSJKOMT!!

A long time ago I was in a similar situation. I asked some people what to do. The advice I took was from Skeptical. He told me that the count is only a tool. If I think that it'll hurt me to start over then I should not count it as a fall. Maybe as a big slip.

After that I was clean for close to a year. I think if I would've counted it as a fall I would've fell again.

Yeah i agree, just a massive slip.

Like ice skating on the edge of a cliff

Please don't do it again.

Now be a little more active here pal, dont disappear like some other fellas here that think a little stuff going on at home warrants a prolonged absence.

Rock on my niggun.

I head that side but when That happened to me I felt like if i didn't put it as a fall I was lying to myself and would not be drinking honestea And we know how important that is
