

Broken Man's First Attempt

Posted by BrokenMan - 04 Mar 2016 14:48

---

Hi, this is my first attempt at completing the 90's chart.

I hope to be able to do this well and plan on posting my progress.

So, here we go....

Welcome, we are all broken men here. HKB"H loves a broken heart and loves you too! You came to the most wonderful sanctuary in the world. There is so much to help you on GYE so don't just taste the appetizer...dive in for the main dish and you will soon be rewarded with a sweet dessert.

OK, I have made it my first couple of days

I am doing ok. Working hard to keep my mind focused on other things.

Must find someone to walk through this with though and come out of secrecy.

You wanna speak to someone?

Maybe try reach out to one of the successful truckers (see the "free towing" page), eg

Cordnoy...

Have you considered installing a GPS on your truck yet?

(see below)
