

Ano Nymous Part 2 - A new year and a new 90 day journey!

Posted by Ano Nymous - 21 Nov 2009 23:43

Hi Guys,

I have (stupidly) neglected this forum because I was simply overwhelmed by the amount of new material on here on a consistent basis. I started my 90 day trip last year on November 20th, and I'm doing the same this year. I've set up my cell phone in such a way that I will be able to send and receive calls for free so I can call my partner and call the phone conferences for free.

Today, Shabbos, was day 2. Let the chizuk flow, because this will NOT be easy. I'm reaching for a new plateau compared to last year. I fully believe that when faced head on with temptation, I am completely powerless. I become a shell of myself, completely out of control. I know though, that if I never give up and I take the right steps, I will win the war despite the lost battles. Signing off,

Ano

Today is day 26. I'm feeling very weak... I don't think I'm going to actually do anything, but It's going to be difficult to avoid allowing the thoughts to push their way in. Hopefully this will pass within a couple hours if I ignore it.

You can just take the seal out of the bathtub once a year. You turn over the entire house once a year for Pesach; surely removing the seal for a 20 minute bath once a year isn't that big of a deal now, is it?

Easy for you to say seally (or is that spelled "silly"?).

And who do you think will end up walking this seal once the novelty wears off

I can picture it now....

mom walking the streets of Yerushalayim Ir Hakodesh shlepping a seal along!!!

My kids would never get shidduchim :-\

:D :D :D :D :D
