

My start to a new life. Day one and beyond

Posted by rgm2017 - 05 Dec 2016 06:58

Today I made a decision for myself and my family. After years of struggle and discovering that a filter by itself is not enough. I decided to get an accountability partner and sign up for this program and the knas program. With Hashems help and mercy I pray with all my heart for a new start and success all the way.
