my life changed when i learned i was sick getting better and not evil trying to get good.

Do you think you moved past the point of bechira into something akin to an addiction?

What is the fine line between Bechirah And an addict?

The line would be whether you can actually choose not to act out or whether basically every single time when faced with the opportunity, you will act out.

The only thing that matters with that line is what you have to do. Because if you're the first type- where you can choose not to if you want to- then your job is to set yourself up in a way that you're making the right choices.

And if you're at the point that you can't do anything about it and always act out, then your job is to get help.

I am embarrassed to say no

My excuse: I am in in middle of a few things now that will enable me to go to a kollel America and have no time and why start something here that will stop

But these are just excuses and I should call someone in America NOW to start

(I have texted shlomo a few times.....)

Try anyone on the Free Towing "Success Story" section.

Or try them all and you may land 2 big fish in 1 day :-)

why does it sicken you?

to be sickened by an aveirah is a high madreigah as grilled neveilah does not sicken me so probaly if we are sickened by this its coming from a different place and maybe instead of sickened we need to think about what we are really looking for the sickened feeling can be just another block from getting what we really need

I do not mean to sound high and mighty but as much as grilled neveilah smells great to me the thought of eating it it self does not sit well with me

So too every time I act out I feel disgusted with myself for I have made a conscious to do so

Maybe I am fooling myself maybe not but right now I need a game plan and I hope to call someone real soon as a start

All comments or suggestions are welcome

ok fine question is why you feel disgusted with yourself and not the porn

you can work on accepting yourself

not to say you should act out but you don't have to be disgusted with yourself
