

sci1977 journey

Posted by sci1977 - 30 Nov 2009 15:50

I started on November 23rd on my 90 days online. I have been clean since the 19th. I am feeling a little scared today. I woke up and said this is going to be another great day that G-d gave me. It has been a tough day so far. I decided to log onto the website and not get off. After reading some and looking back at emails, I am feeling better, but am not going to chance it. No slips or falls. I will NOT give up!!!!

OK, so this is a little idea I had today and wanted to share with everyone. I have been playing with the idea of living is much better then addicting. So, I was thinking today it's been a while since I've even thought about an urge or an idea regarding my old lifestyle. Am I getting to comfortable I thought for a second and then I realized, I am not. I just am living my life!! G-d that feels really good. No slips or falls, non needed or wanted.

Very true. I don't think it means a lack of awareness, but just like you said - moving forward, living life, realizing the value of life.

For all who have followed my thread or read my thread all the way through I wanted to really share something with you. Very early this year I lost a very good friend, MM. Today as I was looking at a picture I thought of him. I was reminded of his class and overall personality that made him so special. I got to thinking after I wiped a tear from my eye. I realized that he lived to live. I have been trying to follow that. In understanding my head better and things are more clear, it is certainly better to be like MM. I sit here writting in the dark purposly because I am sad that I still miss him as if he died yesterday. But I look outside and it bright and sunny and I think over time today my sadness will dissapear. Love you MM and really, really miss you! No slips or falls non needed or wanted.
