

Hayom Yom

Hayom Yom Rishon...

I'm not so great at writing all this out but you have to start somewhere. I've been struggling with watching and masturbating for years. B"H over the past couple of years I've made major improvement by speaking with a close Rebbe, chashuve members of GYE, and seeing a therapist. But I still have never made it to 90 days.

Today I start my journey to 90 and beyond.

YES!!!!!!

I went to the barber this morning and he always has the TV going. Always a game show at that time and I usually watch along (it's a barber's waiting area...what are you supposed to do??) But I joined YESOD for Shovavim and wanted no extra triggers while I'm home this Shabbos. It wasn't easy but I went in and sat down, pulled out my phone and opened Uvlechtechah Baderech and did Shnayim Mikra.

These eyes didn't see a game show, no hosts, no contestants, no models. These eyes are clean!

YES!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

HERO!!!!!!

Shabbos was really nice Baruch Hashem.

Friday night I was having some fantasy dream that I (chasdei Hashem) cannot recall. I woke up in the middle of the night about to ejaculate but B"H did not. I have not been entertaining fantasies these past couple of days so I am assuming it was my Y"H going a meshugeh and trying to get me. Either way, we go on.

I have a little bit of freedom tomorrow in when I return to Yeshiva, I don't have to rush back early in the morning as I usually do. This staying home a little longer is making me nervous because it is more time where I can c"v be nichshal. My gedarim are still firmly in place. Daven, never touch an unfiltered device, and Daven some more.

Today! Damn it! Today!

Just got a really strong urge. I'm still home and I decided to do a little household maintenance for my parents that I've been pushing off. They went out and I just got hit with a huge urge. There is an unfiltered computer steps away from me.

But I'm not going on it. I'm not going to masturbate either. I don't do that anymore. I don't need to do this. I'm going to get past this.

Such a desire to sin now. So easy to go and slip into a fantasy world for a few hours.

I will not.

BHYY, you got this! Hang in there!

Is there anything else you can do to ride the waves here until they pass? Go for a run, pushups, bais medrash, etc.?

Once small step for pleasure...

One giant step for pain...

You got this...

We are holding by Parshas Bo and I heard the following amazing vort from Rav Ephraim Eliyahu Shapiro.

The worst of the makkos was choshech. (Excluding makas bechoros which was in a league of itself, none of the other makkos started with "makas"). Out of the first 9, the worst of the makkos was choshech. Why? There were many other makkos that had much larger loss of human and animal life!

R' Shabsi Yudilevitz said that because in the first 8 makkos they had each other. In choshech they were alone. People can tolerate a lot of things, but one thing many people cannot tolerate is being alone. So firstly, I want to thank all of my chavrim here on GYE from the bottom of my heart for being there for me at all hours of the day and making it that I don't go through this alone.

And to those who may be reading the forums but who haven't taken the plunge and started posting, please do. Please start a thread, share your story and get it out. Reach out to others who are in the same predicament as you, whether by email, text, or call. Don't go through this alone! I tried and failed for years. Don't believe me? Read through my first thread and note the date stamps, the long hiatuses between posts. Also not that not much progress was made when I tried going at it myself. I opened up and reached out to other members of the site. Starting with texting and then calling and finally meeting in person. I met with a close Rebbe and told him my whole story. No one should have to go through this alone. We are all in this together.

The battle is so much easier to win with everyone's support, chizuk, and love.

So please, join us.

B'chasdei Hashem I made it through today clean. Thank you all for your help and Chizuk. I couldn't have done it without you.

Today marks one full week clean!

Today B"H is 8 days clean. I have something amazing to share.

Where I work in the afternoon there are other frum women. B"H with my dollars method I for the most part look away when passing one in the hallway but there was always that feeling, that thought. Today I passed on my way to Mincha and there were no sexual thoughts. No objectifying. Just she's a human, just like me.

9 days clean B'chasdei Hashem.

Shidduchim, as per the usual agreement, are driving me crazy. There still is that anxiety but I feel that there is this different clarity and calmness that comes with staying clean. I feel able to think clearer about certain things and don't just stress out.

ODAAT
