Day 1: Clean on Hoshana Raba, B"H. Will go into Y"T on a 1 day clean streak. Better than nothing. Hope this continues long past then, obviously. Let's keep this going. Wishing everyone a gut Y"T, gut Shabbos, and gut Kvittel.

Hi. How was Yom Tov?

B"H, very good, thanks! Hoping to keep this streak going a lot longer than 3 days, obviously, but off to a good start regardless!

Hey TSW!

Happy to hear you had a good y't and stayed strong! 3 days clean is something incredible and

What is your strategy to make it through? What do you find helps you stay clean?

I always found posting often and discussing my challenges or successes was extremely helpful.

every completed 90 days journey started with 3 days clean first!

Either way, we are rooting for you!!

Unfortunately, I'm going to have to reset the 90-day-date to January 13th. I fell, and my only goal right now is to make sure that I don't wind up wallowing in the filth for days on end like I did last time. So, here's to brushing this off and coming back stronger.
