

In danger

Posted by Wolskzion - 31 Dec 2020 01:51

Hi everyone,

I have an Android that I have been trying unsuccessfully to get filtered. I am finding myself thinking about doing forbidden things I will probably regret because of a lack of real things in my life. Few real relationships and currently out of work. Feeling weak spiritually and far from Hashem. This is a recipe for addiction. I don't have a solution
