Welcome! Great idea.

But I think it would be more productive if you start a thread with the goal of posting about yourself. This way people can give you advice and chizuk based on your situation.

Hatzlacha!

Welcome tzadik!

As the General said, we'd love to hear about you and support you in a custom-made manner. Your idea is awesome, but there are literally hundreds of threads already with such resources.

Stay on board and you will see nissim. I promise!
