

Accountability

I've been struggling a lot recently, and I wanted to try posting again, to keep myself accountable. I know I need to watch myself, but at times I'm not strong enough and hopefully this helps. And please keep me too it!

Hey! Welcome!

Great to see you keeping accountability!

Do you speak to real life people? R' HHM reached out to me 80 days ago and he has changed my life. I'd recommend speaking to real people for mentoring sake and because the more we hide the harder it gets.

I can give you his number if you'd like?

Where'd you go?

How are you these days?
