

I'm genna do this.

Posted by zcleang - 25 Feb 2024 04:19

Hey guys! I'm currently 8 days clean from p&m (although on the site it says 6 days).I feel inspired, Tahor, and overall amazing.

Im going strong but i feel that starting to post my progress here daily will help give me more achrayus, give me more chizzuk, and all around keep me focused on my journey to freedom.

I'm going to try my hardest, every night before bed, to post a little synopsis of my day; if I had any hardships in this inyan, any slight slip ups, urges, or if I didn't follow my regiment/plan correctly.

Hopefully with siyata dishmaya this will helpme continue my mission. Gn and a gut voch!

Bh was busy today up until now at 1:14 am, so didn't really have time to have any urges. TYH!

Bh had an amazing day ten! I actually wrote something last night but fell asleep before I could push submit and lost it!

(It's been so easy that I'm getting nervous when the "calm before the storm" is genna be over and I hope that when it gets challenging I can continue doing what I'm doing.)

Bro, get your plow ready for the storm and keep plowing!

That being said, dont listen to the weather, focus on the moment.

When I say plowing – I'm talking about 'no raise plow policy' which means even if there are bumps in the road – WE PLOW and let all of the roadblocks break from our determination.

So lets keep trucking that plow and break free.

Day 11 was easy again bh! No real urges! I did start feeling a slight feeling like I'm missing something.. idk I can't explain but it could just be I'm in my head. Looking forward to reaching 2 weeks clean which will be a big motivation as it's been a long long time since I've been there!

Having people to talk to really helps weather those moments

Oyvay I fell. Day 13 I fell. It's funny I usually feel way worse about myself after I fall, this time I feel horrible Ofcourse, but I feel like im not back where I started. I worked for 2 weeks and I accomplished.

Idk what I did wrong however. It was easy until about 3 days ago. And then urges started coming, and then I had a large urge today which led me to give in a little and the rest is history. Is there something I could've done to mitigate urges even more? Or urges are genna come and I needa be stronger to not falter one iota.

It's so sad how the yetzer hara gets you to give in in such small and nuanced ways until he gets you in one big swoop. I knew it while I was doing it but it was too late to overcome the challenge. So upset at myself for giving in.

please help

First of all, here's a hug!

Urges will come. Check out the f2f program to learn some tips and techniques for urge surfing. Keep up the amazing work, and make some friends here. It can really help!
