

Starting my own path

Posted by ShtettlMan - 16 Jun 2024 17:40

Hello guys, I've joined the GYE community not so long ago but decided to give myself the 90 days clean goal BzH. So I'm at 6 days clean today BH and hope I will make it!

I didn't dare telling my story yet but maybe I should. I don't know what would be the benefits.

If anyone has some advice to be more "efficient" in my trip...

See you soon !

Ended up with a fall : p&m

I dont know how to react, what can I do to improve and to start it all again. If anyone can Help me...

Should I go again for the 90 clean days ? Or start with a lower goal? If I take a lower goal, what happens after I hit it, I can't say to myself like "after x days you'll do it", it doesnt make sense

And how do I restart de streak days?

You had good awareness and you'll make adjustments and keep working on it!

One day at a time. The idea of counting days and having a limited goal is to help motivate you in short-term successes. This does not mean that you are done after say 30 days - you keep building on that. But now is not the time to think that far ahead. The long-term change will be created when you stack up all your shorter-term goals. Like a fitness plan, you don't get up one day and start training for a 26-mile marathon. You start with 1 mile, then 2, etc. Each time you hit your achievable goal you raise the bar. Control your breathing better, improve your nutrition, refine your stride, increase your endurance, and push farther. The progress is in the steps.

Keep the focus on today and not the what-ifs of the future. If I look too far ahead, I might frustratingly keep tripping over what I don't see right in front of me. One foot and then the other will get you to your destination. Hatzlacha!

The example is very clear!! Imma start a new sequence, with a goal counted in weeks wether than in months. It could be more doable.

Yo great questions. Don't beat yourself up about the fall - consider it like a kid stumbling while learning how to walk.

What are you currently doing besides white knuckling? I apologize if you've already addressed this. But are you doing the F2F program videos and exercises? I'd also suggest joining the daily

battle of the generation read which just restarted the book.

Make a plan. A realistic plan, which you can stick and addresses your issues. A plan with fences in the right places - before the slippery slope starts sliding. And stick to it.

I saw you wrote you have easy access to unfiltered devices. Filtering up to the greatest extent possible is a crucial beginning step of any plan. So, while you'll never be able to filter the entire world, making a real commitment to filtering your personal devices and not using those other devices is an important step to getting clean. (If you can get them filtered, all the better. But if you can't, then make a real commitment to not using them.)

One of the most powerful tools on GYE is the chevra. Talking to real people is really powerful. It took me a very long time to work up to doing that, and it was truly difficult to make those first calls. But when you're ready, picking up the phone and (anonymously) calling someone is a really helpful step. There's a holy jew on here called HHM. Call him.

Stick around. Learn. Never give up.

I dont think Im ready to talk about these issues, typing them is already an achievement for me....

Maybe later bezH.

Imma try to filter any access I have to the triggering stuff that made this urge start in me (the one I couldn't hold lasted a really long time like hours). For others' devices, I decided not to use them bn (btw is a good thing to say bli neder, or is it a ??? that I leave for the YH?)

Thank for your help, I won't stay with that fall!!

Whenever you're ready. Like I said, it took me a very long time to work up to calling anyone. But HHM is a very safe person to talk to. He's heard it all. And I mean all. I actually didn't bother hiding my number in any way when I called him. I figured if his contact list gets out, waaay more important people than me are going to be "discovered" so why bother. lol.

re: commitment. Please do not make an oath of any sort that you might not keep. Say bli neder by all means. A commitment doesn't have to be a shvua for it to be a commitment. Just commit. If you feel like you would benefit from the enforcement of a shvua, there's a type of shvua to pay a penalty that many have found helpful. You can read about it here.

Thanks for the link! It was very interesting

I would like to try the TaPHSIC Method, with the Knas before and after p&m (which I hope bezH won't happen again).

Has anyone here already tried it and can give me some advice?

Thank you

ShtetlMan.

I tried the TAPHSIC method, it could be a very good way not to use the unfiltered devices. BezH hope it will work !

I can wright here what I said in the shvuah if anyone wants or maybe can check what I said. I took only 1 week to start and see the effects.

Looks gevaldig. Is the knas all the things or just one of the options?

And just make sure the second knas is within your abilities. Like if you don't have $500 then it's a bad knas. Do you think you're able to fast two consecutive days? But that's just some fine tuning.

Hope you find this helpful.

I thought to do all the knases but maybe it is too big, I'll see how it works and change the things that are not ok.

Thank you!

Actually 500$ are a lot for me but I thought it would force myself to do the stuff when an urge comes.

Yeah. There's a sweet spot between motivating bc it's hard, and impossible. If it's impossible to fulfill the knas it's counterproductive.

Wow! It's really great that your making such a major effort to overcome your struggle. I hope it works for you

Just wondering aloud though... I know there's an official GYE Taphsic method. But making a real shvua seems like playing with something pretty scary. Like what happens if you by mistake are oiver on it without realising, like if one of the terminologies isn't so clear i.e. who says that what you call a torah shiur is hashems definition of a torah shiur, not putting any speakers but what if say the guy is just shmoozing for 10 mins first does that count as torah?

Actually I heard the chiur and the Rabbi said there thaht it was a Tzivouy of the Torah. I thought about what I thought I coul do and couldnt for about 24 hours, and then nishbati. As they explain in the article there is a bunch of things to say after the shvua so that I'll can change the terms by the end of the firtst week.

Btw I hope that ???? ??? ??? is the thing that is ???? what a shiur Torah is...
